The Gazette and Judge Ranney.

The Garette claims that Judge Runney was once opposed to the Fugitive Slave Law, and it is terribly exercised at the pretended discovery. Its editorials during the past week have treated of nothing but Ranney. Ranney, Ranney. The first impression of the reader would be, that he had committed some infamous act, which could never be ted, it can not yet be forgotten. An action their imposition, fraud and rascallty. so entirely disqualifying any one to be Chief Mugistrate of this State, must be for-the editor, the astonishing revelution is made, which are now held by the Republican parhim, and the assertion that he is unlit for tant. the office for which he is nominated. Is this the only charge the Gazette can prefer against him; the only objection it can offer ? We should think so from the continual "harping" it keeps up upon this one been made : subject. His private life has been so pure, and his public career so unblemished, that it is unable to discover any vile act which it 15 can parade before its readers : any instance of dishonesty or corruption which would eft 10. fectually damn him in the estimation of the people of Ohio. Hence the miserable shift which has been adopted. This charge IS, has been the sum and substance of the control objections found against Judge Ranney, for 20 Win, H. Safford, Esq., the Democratic can be control of the cont has been the sum and substance of all the

With respect to the declaration, that he ver opposed the Fugitive Slave Law, either y making speeches or taking part in conceptions it is sufficient to see that it is reever opposed the Fugitive Slave Law, either by making speeches or taking part in conventions, it is sufficient to say that it is to- 1 tally and entirely false. It is a vile slander, gotten up for the worst purposes. The report which was in circulation a few weeks ago, to the effect that in 1848 he had made a speech in a public meeting, denouncing fate. Judge Ranney's previous career, gives the lie most emphatically to the slanderous ly times during the Campaign. reports in circulation concerning his political tenets. They cannot injure him among his friends, and their frivolity and trifling character will cause them to be despised by his political ensmiss.

The Overdrafts upon the State Treasury. The leaders of the Republican Party, show the spirit and plain letter of the Constitution, of the State of Ohio, was perpetrated by the present State Officers, during the past year.— There is a clause in the Constitution, which distinctly declares, that no fund in the State | 100 The Canadians have made their for Treasury appropriated for a particular object, ahall be used for any purpose than the one cant leves she received "in the Royal Clossestion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysteries and Rich Chulli Robes at Eastern cost. when they took their oath to support the Con stitution, swors to support this clause as the change of the transfer of the tran as any other. Yet in face of the

mand, in defiance of every pr they dared during the year 18 drafts upon the Treasury, to th 000, for repairing damages a produced by freshets on the Hocking, and The southern portion of the Ohio Canal. Hon. F. M. Wright Auditor of State in his to annual report says :

In connection with this subject, I deem the present a proper point in this report to state that in consequence of the injury done to these works by the freshets alluded to, the Commissioner in charge of that portion of canals found that the apprepriations at his disposal would be greatly inadequate to repair the daunges and keep his division in navigable oder during the year. In this difficulty, and the emergency being pressing—not only to secure the works from further damage by instant prosecution of the necessary repairs, but to place and keep them in navigable order, recourse was had to the Governor to remedy, if possible, the deniciancy in the requisite funds. But one remedy presented itself as admissible, which was, to devise the issue of over-draft to an amount sufficient to repair the damages. This suggestion was fully concurred in by all the Executive officers of the State, and promptly carried into state the issue of over-draft to an amount of $15.00. The Legitalture will, doubless, premiply make the requisite appropriations to

The cool impulsoes of this report, and the self assurance musificated in anylog that the Legislature will doubtless, promptly make the requisite appropriations to meet these over-drafts," is only equilled by the hardibool of the Auditor, in teating the over-drafts in the first place. He and his compens were sadly mistaken, in supposing that the Legislatur would provide for their reimbursement, and exaction their disobedience of the Constitution and the violation of their onths. That budy positively declined to permit such a gross out, rage to be perpetrated, with impunity; and although all manuer of expedients were resort ed to by the Republicans, an adjournment bear had without any provision being made for their relief, either by appropriation or otherwise, The State Officers upon whose warrant the sum was drawn out, will be compelled to sustain the loss, at least until some succeeding Legislature, shall see fit to make an appropriation for

The Audilor in his report, endeavors to place JAMES TOMLINSON, of Washington Co the blame upon the shoulders of Gov. Chase, but "the chief" is too wily as well as penurious, to bear the burden long, and will doubtless shift it upon some one loot versed in strategem than hisself. This is but a specimen of the fraud, deceit and hypocracy, practiced by the opposite party, both among themselves and toward the people of the State, as if the recent defalcations were not aufficient, they set to work with a boldness and confidence almost surpassing belief, to break down the barriers enclosing the State Treasury; and draw out money from thence without a shadow of justice They had no more right to take the $15,000 in question, than the memest individual in the McDonough st.-

and laid themselves liable to imprachment. But so accustomed were they to make free FORTY LOTS: with the State money, that they made slight account of their invaid upon the treasury, and presented their demand for reisabursement to forgiven. The Guzette takes pains to speak the Legislature, with the atmost confidence that by degrees the awful disclosures it is about it would be granted. The same disposition City Property-Bestrabic Resito make, lest the revelation should be too to override all restraint exhibited by them in wonderful for belief. One would naturally this transaction, produced the defalcation of suppose, by the bints thrown out before Breslie. The men who im posed upon his good hand, that our candidate for Governor and nature, who followed him by day and dogged The House Is large and commodious, with all the been guilty of perfidy, fraud or malfeasance him by night; who met him on the street in office, and after reading the first few sen- corners and stopped him on his way to hasi. tences might shrewdly suspect that he had ness; who poured toto his ears the insiduous tences might shrawdly suspect that he had doctrine that the State Treasury need not be been convicted of some horrifying reversia quite crident that some horrifying reversity that some horrifying reversity to the ceaseless characters for money, money, money, lation is to be made, which is expected to were the present leaders of the Republican give a terrible shock to the mind of the Party. After the reader's mind has thus been put determine to do this they will undoubtedly inte a state of expectation, satisfactory to elect him, as they have complete power in Lorain County. It is probable that the cenand it consists simply in this : that Judge tral junto will interfere to prevent the opn. Ranney once spoke our against the Eugitive summation of the wishes of Oberlin, in this Slave Law, and countenanced principles respect, as the rank and file in Central and Southern Ohio, are not yet ready for it .ty.
